

FACT SHEET

Is there Training for Service Providers Who Want to Learn How to Work with Interpreters?

Yes there is. Most non-profit interpreter trainers and interpreter service providers across Ontario offer training both on and off site to organizations who are interested in training their staff to work effectively with interpreters. In many cases, trainers will deliver for free an "Orientation to Interpretation" workshop. Some trainers also make use of instructional DVDs to facilitate the learning process.

For a directory of Interpretation Service Providers in Ontario, please go to ...\..\interpretation service providers\trainers and schools\Volunteer Interpreter and Staff Training Information.pdf.

Funded by:

Financé par :

Citizenship and
Immigration Canada

Citoyenneté et
Immigration Canada